AIME PERRET

Paris

Born at Lyon in 1846

He began exhibiting in the Salon in 1872, and received his first medal in 1877, followed by others in 1888 and 1889. At the Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893, he was declared "hors concours," and in the same year he was appointed "Chevalier" of the Legion of Honor. His Salon picture of 1876 was purchased by Princess Mathilde, and the one of 1877, "A Christening en Bourgogne," by the City of Lyon. The French Government has bought a number of Perret's works, first in 1879, Le Saint Viatique for the "Musée du Luxembourg," then his Salon picture of 1881 for the "Musée de Carcassonne," of 1885 for the "Musée de Chalons-sur-Marne," of 1886 for the "Musée de Morlais," of 1897 for the "Musée de Nantes," and the City of Paris acquired his painting "L'Aieule." Besides, Aimé Perret is represented in many of the most prominent private collections in France and abroad. He is called the painter of the "happy peasants" in difference of Millet, who painted the "very poor peasants." History will place the name of Aimé Perret in the same class with those of Millet, Rousseau, Jacque, and all those great artists who have shown us in their works the poetry of the field, its joys, sorrows, and its eternal beauty

Born at Lyon in 1846

He began exhibiting in the Salon in 1872 and received his first medal in 1877, followed by others in 1888 and 1889. At the Columbian Exposition, Chicago, 1893, he was declared "hors concours," and in the same year he was appointed "Chevalier" of the Legion of Honor. His Salon picture of 1876 was purchased by Princess Mathilde, and the one of 1877, "A Christening in Bourgogne," by the City of Lyon. The French Government has bought a number of Perret's works; first in 1879, Le Saint Viatique for the "Musee du Luxembourg," then his Salon picture of 1881 for the "Musee de Carcassonne," of 1885 for the "Musee de Chalons-sur-Marne," of 1886 for the "Musee de Morlaix," of 1897 for the "Musee de Nantes," and the City of Paris aquired his painting "L'Aieule." Besides, Aime Perret is represented in many of the most prominent private collections in France and abroad.

He is called the painter of the "happy peasants" in difference of Millet, who painted the "very poor peasants." History will place the name of Aime Perret in the same class with those of Millet, Rousseau, Jacque, and all those great artists who have shown us in their works the poetry of the fields, their joys, their sorrows and their eternal beauty
